will be able to install meters, a proceeding which is essential to a business-like administration of the department. As a result, water users will gain, inasmuch as they will pay a little less for their water with meters than without, even at a higher rate, and the time when a new aqueduct must be constructed at a cost of many millions of dollars will be postponed many years.
"The Commissioners recognize as one of their most important functions, the acquisition in the near future, before building operations and advancing values shall have made the task difficult or impossible, of lands needed for park purposes, as determined by the McMillan Park Commission. The Commissioners, therefore, will present each year to Congress a number of projects. If the community will set behind the efforts of the Commissioners to obtain park lands, as fast as funds permit, it will be surprising how soon the lands may be obtained.
"All citizens must know that all the parks cannot be obtained the first year, nor yet the second, while some must wait until the fourth or fifth year.
"If there is any matter in which the citizens should be united, it is in this matter of the acquisition of parks."

Milano Case to Come Before Grand Jury Later

Criminal prosecution of Tony Milano, charged with the murder of young Harry Smith a week ago in his shoemaker's shop, will not be considered before the District grand jury until next month.
Today Assistant District Attorney Mudd said it would hardly be possible to present the witnesses against Milano to the grand jury for two or three weeks. A new grand jury, to be called when the October term of court opens, will probably consider the case, work before the present grand jury being contested.
Before the Milano case is presented to the grand jury, witnesses will be examined in the office of the District Attorney.

Police Unable to Find Missing Arthur W. Black

No clue was obtained by the police today as to the whereabouts of fifteen-year-old Arthur W. Black, who disappeared some time Saturday night from his home, 104 Tenth street southeast. The boy carried away practically all of his clothing, and his parents believe he has left the city.
When Mrs. Black went to her son's room to call him for breakfast yesterday morning, she was surprised to find that his bed had not been slept in. Further investigation disclosed the fact that a suit case and most of the lad's clothing were also gone. She immediately called the police and sent out an alarm for her son.

Aged Resident Claimed by Death

HERMAN GASCH, Capital Resident for More Than Sixty Years, Dies After Long Illness.

Taft Sends Greeting To Mexican President

President Taft has sent a telegram to President De la Barra of Mexico, assuring him of this country's good will on the occasion of the celebration of Independence day by the southern neighbors. The telegram is as follows:
"I take pleasure in tendering your excellency, in the name of the people of the United States and in my own, sincere congratulations of this national anniversary and in assuring you of the good will which this Government and the people bear for your excellency's country."

Wants Name Changed.

Israel Katz today filed a petition in the District Supreme Court to change his name to Harry Katz, having used the latter name in business for the last five years. His attorney is Mark Stearman.

Consul Reports on Riots in Mexico

Echoes of the Independence day riots in Mexico today reached the State Department through official channels. Consul Ellsworth reports from Eagle Pass that on Saturday from 300 to 500 Mexicans marched the streets, shouting and throwing stones and breaking doors and windows.
He adds that no foreigners were wounded.
From other sections of the republic have come reports of violence, but the latest assurances from Mexico indicate that the uneasiness in official circles over this situation is relieved.

Woman Loses $250.

Mrs. J. J. Hassold, of 726 Fifth street northwest, reported to the police of the Sixth precinct today that a hand bag containing two gold watches and several other articles of value was stolen from her home last night. She placed her loss at $250.

HERMAN GASCH, IN BUSINESS HERE SIX DECADES, IS DEAD

President of German-American Insurance Company Passes Away.

Herman Gasch, eighty-five years old, president of the German-American Insurance Company, and for more than sixty years a prominent business man of the Capital, died at his residence, 2917 Fourteenth street northwest yesterday afternoon. Death came after an illness of several months, and after Mr. Gasch had suffered several strokes of paralysis.
Born in Saxony, Germany, in 1826, Mr. Gasch came of a very old and prominent German family. He received his university education in the German Gymnasium, and was prominent as a young man in affairs of interest to the last generation of Germans.
Coming to Washington in 1850, he at once identified himself with the business interests of the city. For a number of years he ran a wholesale tobacco store on Seventh street, going into the insurance business thirty years ago, when the German-American Fire Insurance Company of the District was organized. He was the holder of a number of prominent offices in this company, including that of treasurer, until about twelve years ago, when he was made president, in which office he took active interest until the time of his death.
"Always of simple tastes, Mr. Gasch avoided publicity, and business associates say he was the possessor of remarkable business ability. His advice, always conservative, was sought upon many occasions. His wife, to whom he was married for nearly half a century, died at an advanced age six years ago.
Mr. Gasch is survived by four children—Mrs. Charles A. Koh, Mrs. Julius A. Maedel, and Herman E. Gasch, of Washington, and Arthur E. Gasch, of Fairfax, Va.
Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the family residence. The Rev. A. R. Husey, of a Unitarian church, of Baltimore, an old friend of Mr. Gasch, will officiate. Interment will be private in Glenwood Cemetery.

TAFT IN DETROIT; TO TOUR STATE IN A SPECIAL TROLLEY

Makes Short Talk to Business Men, and Leaves for Pontiac.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 18.—A drizzle of rain greeted President Taft when he began his four day tour of Michigan with a rapid fire visit to Detroit today. The President was in town just one hour this morning and the only function he attended was breakfast with the board of commerce.
Immediately after making a short talk to the members of the board at the Detroit Club, he was taken aboard a special trolley car to begin his swing around the state with Pontiac as the first stop. This afternoon he will return to Detroit to address the crowd at the Michigan State fair. A board of commerce luncheon and an automobile ride will round out the day.
Saginaw and Bay City will see the President this evening, and Sault Ste. Marie, Marquette, Grand Rapids, Battle Creek and Kalamazoo will be visited before he leaves the state Thursday.

Children Line Trolley Route and Cheer Taft On Visit to Pontiac

PONTIAC, Mich., Sept. 18.—Greeted by 2,000 little school children in gala dress, who lined the streets here, President Taft today came to Pontiac. The President was deeply touched by the greetings of the cheering little ones. He came from Detroit by trolley, and all along the line the school children were out to cheer as the car went by.
On arriving here the President was escorted by the children to the little grandstand in a broad, shaded park. There were 3,000 persons gathered to hear him. He was introduced by Representative Samuel Santy.
The President delivered a brief eulogy of James Le Roy, late Philippine commissioner, who died of tuberculosis in the islands. Le Roy was a native of Pontiac.

A Climax in Piano Bargains

OUR NEW HOME

Never, since the Frederick Piano Co. bought the Knabe Store on F street, has an equal chance been offered to own a real high-grade piano at such trifling cost.

Pianos of World-Wide Fame May Be Had at Prices of Medium Grade Instruments

Uprights as low as $100

When the Frederick Piano Company does anything, it does it thoroughly. Most people in Washington know this to be true from observation. When this company determined to get a new home for its growing business, it went about it calmly and deliberately until the right place was found and then—took it. The result will speak for itself when completed, which will be in a few days. It will, we believe, be found to be the most artistic and thoroughly-equipped piano warerooms in Washington.

OUR REMOVAL IS NEAR AT HAND.
We have been kept back on account of some delay in elevator construction. This delay, annoying as it is to us, IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY, and has brought about a Climax in Piano Bargains.

Our new stock is bought and ready to start for Washington the moment we wire, "Let them come."

Our present stock is offered for sale at absurd prices because—to be frank—we want to open up only with fresh and new stock. The pianos we have here are just as good as those coming—the same makes, the same styles, just as good in every material way, except that of coming right from the cars to the new building.

The best pianos made in this whole round world. The best by test, as everybody knows whose opinion is worth anything, are right here now—the KNABE, that tried and true king of them all; HARDMAN, that beautiful, artistic, and most durable pianoforte; the LUDWIG, the FREDERICK, and lots of others; all brand-new; grands and uprights.

The Climax of Piano Bargains is reached right here in offering such magnificent instruments at such absurd prices as they are selling for. Little quarter-grands, in rare mahogany cases, regular $700 and $800 pianos, selling now as low as $495. Plenty of uprights of the $500 grade as low as $350 to $400, and Pianos you'll never be able to buy at these prices again.

In used uprights—not old second-hand ones; just used slightly—a fine array is shown. You can get your choice among such makes as Chickering, Hardman, Weber, Knabe, Haines Bros., Decker Bros., Fischer, Miller, Kranich & Bach, Steger, Foster, Brewster, Ludwig, Frederick, Behning, and lots of others (splendid company to pick from), at prices as low as $150, $140, $130, $120, and $100.

BEAR IN MIND, PLEASE, that this Sale is going on at the OLD ADDRESS—1328 F street.

TERMS OF PAYMENT are attractive; in some cases as low as $5.00 a month.

PIANOS FOR RENT. Rent your season's piano NOW and save the cost of moving, which we'll omit.
